Terms of Use iPad Source.ag LLC

The Plant App is an application for recording plant measurements and is delivered on an iPad. When Customer subscribes to Source Workspace, it gains access to the Plant App on an iPad provided by Source.ag. This document provides more information on the terms of use of the iPads (the Hardware).

The Hardware may only be used to receive and/or make use of the Services and, for the avoidance of doubt, in accordance with the use restrictions set forth in Clauses 1.1, 1.4, 1.5 and 1.7 of the GT&C which apply mutatis mutandis to the use of and/or access to (the Services on) the Hardware.

In addition to Clause 8.3 of the GT&C, Source.ag may terminate the loan for convenience at any time, by giving fourteen (14) days written notice in advance of such termination. In addition to Clause 8.4 of the GT&C, Customer shall immediately upon termination of the loan term return the Hardware to Source.ag or a third party nominated by Source.ag in the same state as it received them.

Source.ag is entitled to terminate the loan with immediate effect if Customer neglects, misuses or in any other way uses the Hardware in violation with the GT&C and these Terms of Use. In the event of loss, theft or damage rendering Hardware unusable, Customer will promptly but in any event within 24 hours, notify Source.ag by sending an email to support@source.ag.

Source.ag will reasonably undertake to replace the Hardware promptly but in any event within a period of four weeks after the first notification of the Customer to Source.ag which period may be extended when failure of delay to provide the Hardware is due to causes beyond the reasonable control of Source.ag. Replacement costs of the Hardware shall be invoiced by Source.ag to Customer.
